Safeguarding

The Parochial Church Council of St Peter le Poer Church has a Policy for safeguarding children, young people, and vulnerable adults. A copy is displayed on the church noticeboard in the hall and on the website.

The Hirer shall ensure that any activities at the church hall for children or vulnerable adults ("relevant activities") comply with all applicable legislation in respect of the relevant activities and that only fit and proper persons have access to children or vulnerable adults. Safeguarding Policies are the responsibility of the Hirer and by entering into this agreement and by using the church hall the Hirer confirms that (where applicable) it has an appropriate safeguarding policy and uses the Disclosure and Barring Service in respect of the relevant activities.

The Parish Safeguarding Officer is Susan Upcott. You may contact her if you need further information or if you have a concern about a safeguarding incident. safeguarding@stpetersch.org.uk

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF HIRE

1. Supervision and responsibilities

- The Hirer will, during the period of hiring, be responsible for the supervision and care of the church hall and its contents and for the behaviour of everyone using the church hall.
- The church hall must be left clean and tidy at the end of the hired session and report any defects or damages to the PCC.
- At the end of each session of use, the Hirer must leave the church hall properly locked and secured (unless directed otherwise), with any contents properly replaced in their usual positions, and with lights and heaters turned off and windows closed.
- Any costs incurred by the PCC as a result of the loss or damage of keys by the Hirer (including the cost of replacing locks) must also be reimbursed by the Hirer.
- Any equipment left in the church hall by the Hirer is left at the Hirer's own risk. The PCC takes no responsibility for items, equipment or any belongings left in the church hall at any time, including any equipment agreed to be stored at the church hall. The PCC will have the right to dispose of anything left for longer than one month.
- The Hirer acknowledges that no tenancy is intended to be created between the PCC and the Hirer and no relationship of landlord and tenant exist between them.

2. Use of the church hall

- The Hirer must not use the church hall for any purpose other than that described in the Hiring Agreement and will not use the church hall (or allow the church hall to be used) for any unlawful purpose or in any unlawful way.
- The Hall may not be hired for any religious activities. This is because it is part of the Church building and, by law, no religious activities may take place on the premises other than those of the Church of England. Religious activity includes prayer, worship, religious instruction and the study or recitation of the scriptures of any faith.
- The Hirer must not do anything or bring anything into the church hall which might endanger the church hall or render invalid any insurance policies covering the church hall.
- The Hirer must not use the church hall in any way which does or would be likely to cause nuisance, damage, disturbance, annoyance, inconvenience or interference to people living or using property nearby, or any activity which could bring the Church or PCC into disrepute.
- Subject to above, the PCC will supply a key to the above named representative at an agreed time and the key will be returned by being posted back through the mail slot on the hall door.
- Church officers and staff will take reasonable steps to avoid entering the church hall during the times when the church hall is being used by the Hirer. However, the PCC reserves the right to allow or arrange essential and/or emergency access - eg by electricity meter readers, the Church architect, those who have to service heating, fire extinguishers, plumbing and other equipment, etc.
- The activity for which the hall was hired must cease by the time it was contracted to end. All playing of music must cease by 10pm. All activities must finish by 10pm. A further 30 minutes is allowed for clearing up, checking and locking up.

3. Licences and insurance

- The Hirer is responsible for obtaining and complying with any licences which may be needed.
- The Hirer shall be responsible for making adequate arrangements to insure against any third party claims which may lay against the Hirer or his/her organisation whilst using the church hall.

4. Gaming, Betting and Lotteries

- The Hirer must ensure that nothing is done on or in relation to the church hall in contravention of the law relating to gaming, betting and lotteries.

5. Safety Compliance

- The Hirer must comply with all conditions and regulations made in respect of the church hall by the Fire Authority, the Local Authority, the Local Magistrates' Court or otherwise, particularly (if applicable) in connection with any event which includes public dancing or music or other similar public entertainment or stage plays. The Hirer must, in particular, ensure it is aware of the location of the first aid kits, fire extinguishers and fire exits. It is the responsibility of the Hirer to ensure that the church hall is safe for the purpose for what they intend to use it for.

6. Health and Hygiene

- The Hirer shall, if preparing, serving or selling food, observe all relevant food health and hygiene legislation and regulations.
- No smoking is permitted in the church hall or its grounds.

7. Electrical Safety

- The Hirer shall ensure that any electrical appliances brought to the church hall and used there shall be safe and in good working order and used in a safe manner.

8. Accidents and breakages

- The Hirer must report to the Authorised Representative of the PCC all accidents involving injury to a member of the public as soon as possible. Any breakages or failure of equipment belonging to the PCC must also be reported as soon as possible. Breakages must be paid for by the Hirer.

9. Animals

- No animals whatsoever are to be allowed to enter the kitchen at any time.

10. Children, Young People and Adults at Risk

- As a Hirer, you are required to ensure that children, young people and vulnerable adults are protected at all times, by taking all reasonable steps to prevent injury, illness, loss or damage occurring.

11. Fly Posting

- The Hirer must not carry out or permit fly posting or any other form of unauthorised advertising for any event taking place at the church hall, without the prior permission of the PCC.

12. Noise

- The Hirer must ensure that the minimum of noise is made on arrival and departure.

13. Indemnity and loss

- The Hirer shall indemnify the PCC for the cost of repairing any damage done to any part of the church hall (or any other building for which the PCC is responsible), including its contents, which may occur during the period of the Hiring Agreement as a result of the hiring or of the negligence of the Hirer.
- The Hirer shall indemnify the PCC against all liability, action, claims and proceedings arising from any breach of any term of the Hiring Agreement.
- The PCC accepts no liability for any loss or damage occasioned by or through the hiring of the church hall or occurring within the church hall, save that the PCC does accept full responsibility for any personal injury or death caused by the negligence of the PCC (which for the purposes of this provision shall include St Peter's Church and its employees).
- If the Hirer is a consumer, his or her statutory rights are unaffected.

14. Cancellation by the Church

- The PCC reserves the right upon reasonable notice save in the case of emergency to cancel any particular session or sessions of this hiring in the event of the church hall (or any other part of the church halls) being required for use as a Polling Station for a Parliamentary or Local Government election or bye-election or in other special circumstances (such as in connection with, or where their use is inappropriate because of, a funeral or other church use).
- The PCC reserves the right to terminate the Hiring Agreement as a whole, with immediate effect and with no financial reimbursement, if the terms and conditions of the Hiring Agreement are not adhered to by the Hirer.
- The Parish Priest, Churchwardens and authorized representatives of the PCC reserve the right to enter any part of the Hall and associated facilities at any time, and, if any of these Rules have been violated, to require any activity to cease immediately, and all persons to leave the premises.

15. Refusal of booking

- The PCC also reserves the right to cancel the Hiring Agreement at any time before the beginning of the period of hiring, which it can do by giving 7 days' notice in writing to the Hirer. In these circumstances, the Hirer will be entitled to reimbursement of any money paid in advance to the PCC for the Hiring Agreement (including the deposit) but the PCC shall not be liable to make any further payment or compensation to the Hirer.

16. Unfit for use

- If the church hall is unfit or unavailable for use at any time, the PCC shall refund the part of the Hiring Fee that relates to the period that the church hall is unfit or unavailable for use. This represents the Hirer's sole remedy in these circumstances.

17. Sub-hiring prohibited

- The Hirer must not sub-hire the church hall (or any part of the church) or assign the benefit of the Hiring Agreement to any other person or organisation or allow any other person or organisation to use the church hall under this Agreement.
- For the avoidance of doubt, it is acknowledged that the Hirer is not entitled to exclusive occupation of the church hall or any part of the church.
